

I am a loyal listener to K-LOVE, a Christian radio broadcaster, on 91.9 FM. K-LOVE helps develop a positive attitude in me as I start each day and assists me in unwinding as I head home from work. It is difficult to be angry in traffic while listening to God's message. While I have the choice of a couple of other Christian radio stations, I prefer K-LOVE because they focus on delivering the message of God's love, most often through music. I often feel that the other radio stations spend much of their time admonishing the various sins of the world, pointing out fault while ignoring their own. I know that I am a sinner, and I have a problem with fellow sinners judging what they feel to be the "greater sins" of others. K-LOVE does not do that. They emphasize God's abundant and free grace to all who love Him. While a person must feel shame to truly repent, K-LOVE brings hope after the repentance, something of which the world has too little.

Many of my friends and strangers alike in my community listen to K-LOVE. We probably all have different reasons. I enjoy the music, as it speaks directly to my heart. Since I am a musician in my local church, K-LOVE provides an avenue to hear the latest music so that I can, in turn, pass on God's love to others through His gift of my voice. I have not experienced that with any other radio station.

K-LOVE reaches out to people every day—believers and nonbelievers alike. I feel so strongly about the ministry of K-LOVE that I support it with a monthly pledge of $40. The youth in my church and in many other churches in my community are also avid K-LOVE listeners and supporters. This broadcaster provides them an alternative to music containing messages of dysfunctional relationships.

A small group at my church performed a contemporary Christian song today. As I was enjoying their music from the choir loft, I noticed a little girl in the front row. She couldn't have been more than seven or eight years old, and she was singing along with them. I would be willing to bet that she picked up that song from listening to K-LOVE.

I hope that you will give prayerful consideration to prioritizing LPFM stations over FM translator services. K-LOVE listeners give what they have financially in order to continue receiving their uplifting signal. K-LOVE has found a way to reach out to countless others with God's message of hope, love, and grace. Our country was built on hope and tolerance. Please do not take away the avenue for this powerful message by giving LPFM stations priority over FM stations.
